Double Knit Fountain Hill Scarf

by Clara Masessa

This Reversible scarf is double knitted using Fountain Hill yarn, a light and airy blend of acrylic and mohair, for added interest, warmth and drape. The plain design will add a smart touch to any coat or jacket.

Double Knit Fountain Hill Scarf CONT'D

Double Knitting Notes:

Double Knitting is done in a K1, P1 pattern

It is VERY IMPORTANT to bring both colors to back when knitting (even though you will only be knitting with the one color) and both colors to the front when purling (even though you will only be purling with the one color)

It is also IMPORTANT when starting a new row to wrap the main color yarn around the other color before knitting the first stitch so you will not have a gap along the side edge

The K sts provide the color for the scarf on the front side and the P sts provide the color for the back We will use the terms MC and CC to differentiate side 1 from side 2

Choose one of your colors to be MC (side 1) and one to be CC (side 2)

Using MC CO 60 sts (Please make sure to read the above double knitting notes before starting)

Row 1 - *K1 MC, P1 CC, repeat from * across

Row 2 - * K1 CC, P1 MC, repeat from * across

Repeat these two rows for desired length

You can add interest to this scarf by reversing the colors occasionally to create stripes as shown in the photo of the finished scarf on front.

BO tightly in K1, P1 bind off using MC only.
